Introduction

The Stowell papers are a small collection of invoices from several North Country stores to Frank W. Stowell, a merchant in Chilson, Essex County, New York. They cover the first quarter of the 20th century from 1901 to 1922.

CONTENTS

The invoices are housed in a half Hollinger box containing 7 folders. These folders are divided alphabetically by the name of the store and, within each folder, arranged in chronological order.
