

The Institute on Québec Studies
State University of New York College at Plattsburgh invites you to participate in:

The Québec Summer Seminar

"Accentuate Québec: A Profile of Teaching,
Research and Professional Development
Opportunities in Québec Studies."

[June 15-19, 2009
Québec City]

This seminar is a unique opportunity for U.S. and worldwide academics who are interested and focused on Québec to meet with and hear from leading specialists on one of the most dynamic communities in North America:

Highlights of the 2009 Seminar include:

- presentations by leading Québec academics and government officials
- a comprehensive review of the most contemporary multidisciplinary scholarship on Québec
- engagement with leading representatives from Québec Studies associations (ACQS, AIEQ and ACSUS), foundations (the Canada-U.S. Fulbright Foundation, the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada) and government (the Ministry of International Relations, and the United States Consulate).*
- a review of professional development activities — publishing, grants, conferences, and exchanges

Seminar details:

- non-refundable $699 U.S. registration fee
- deluxe accommodation for five nights
- daily deluxe breakfast

* Seminar representatives to be confirmed.

 Please note that transportation to and from the seminar is the responsibility of each participant.

The Institute on Québec Studies, State University of New York College at Plattsburgh, serves as the gateway institution for the promotion of Québec Studies in the United States.
