Application
for Glaubinger Scholars Society Scholarship
for Study in Mexico
(Universidad de Guadalajara or Universidad de Monterrey) and/or for Study in Canada
(Université de Laval or University of Calgary)

Award Amount: One Year In-State Tuition (Approximately $4,350) [Note: Students who are recipients of other tuition scholarships/awards will receive the difference between what they are receiving and the full cost of in-state tuition.]

Minimum Criteria for Eligibility:
• 3.0 college G.P.A. or 85% high school average (freshmen)
• Demonstrated interest in North American Studies
• Two language courses
• U.S. Citizen, Permanent Residents, and other classifications eligible for federal financial aid

Application Requirements:
• Copy of most recent transcript or CAPP report
• 1 letter of reference from a foreign language teacher/professor
• Names of 2 additional academic references who may be contacted
• 2-page essay on “How North American Studies relates to your major and your career goals”

Deadline for Application: October 1 for Spring Semester; March 15 for Fall Semester

Please print or type application.

First Name: _________________________ Middle Initial _____ Last Name: ____________________________

School Address: ____________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Home Address: _____________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Phone number: ______________________________

e-mail address: ______________________________

Name of Plattsburgh State Faculty Member who will serve as your North American Scholars study abroad mentor: ________________________________________________________

Please return application to: Dr. Nancy J. Church, Interim Director of International Education, Office of International Education, 102 Broad Street, 2nd Floor, Plattsburgh State University of New York. For more information, please call 564-2320; fax 564-2326; or e-mail: nancy.church@plattsburgh.edu.