Continue down the walkway to Feinberg Library. Enter at the far left corner of the building. The Reference Room and computers for accessing the electronic library catalogue are on your right.

Resources in Feinberg Library
• Reference & electronic search areas
• Full-text scholarly journal databases
• Over 300,000 books and 1,400 periodicals

Rockwell Kent Gallery
Down the hallway and past the Reference Room is the Rockwell Kent Gallery. If open, feel free to go right into the gallery. The Rockwell Kent Gallery at Plattsburgh State contains the most complete and balanced collection of Kent’s work in the United States.

Claude J. Clark Learning Center
Go back out into the Library lobby and head downstairs and enter the Learning Center on your right. The Learning Center features:
• Free tutoring in 200 courses
• Writing lab and writing tutors
• Open 24 hours during finals week

Feinberg Computer Lab and Extended Computer Labs
Leaving the Learning Center, the Feinberg Computer Lab is on your right. The labs features over 200 state-of-the-art computer systems equipped with Microsoft Office, Internet Explorer, and Mozilla Firefox, some with discipline-specific software, scanners, Zip drives, and CD writers. Resources include:
• Open 12-16 hours daily with extended hours during finals week
• Free black & white laser printing
• Small fee for other printing services

Smart Classrooms
These special classrooms let instructors go beyond the blackboard and lecture with multimedia presentations.
We have over 30 smart classrooms in 9 buildings. The teaching stations in these rooms feature computers that control ceiling-mounted projectors, VCR/DVD players, amplifiers, mixers, and stereo speakers.
Angell College Center

Leave the Computer Lab and walk down the hall to the right into Angell College Center—you will pass the services below as you walk through.

Student Support Services (SSS)
The office on your left provides academic services for first-generation, modest income, or disabled students.

Educational Opportunity Program Office (EOP)
The Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) is a support program for students from financially disadvantaged families. EOP students who also meet academic guidelines benefit from advisors, tutors, and financial assistance to help them succeed.

Residence Halls

Continue down Rugar Street to Whiteface Hall. Whiteface is one of two residence halls that are home to WISE: Whiteface/Wilson Initiative for Student Engagement. First-year students can opt to live in Whiteface or Wilson Halls and take advantage of extra academic and residential support:

Two Resident Mentors on each floor help students transition into college life and participate in activities with students at least 4 times a semester.

One Faculty Mentor for each floor attends workshops with students to bridge the gap between academics and residence life. Your mentor will have office hours right in your building!

First Year Advocates are assigned to freshmen who choose to live in other residence halls. These advocates help students with transition questions and issues.

Residence Hall Resources and Facilities (All Residence Halls)
- 12 residence halls to choose from on campus—all coed, all non-smoking, all for the same price
- 400 free long-distance minutes per month and unlimited on-campus calls (phone not provided)
- Free internet access (2 ports per room) and free cable TV access
- Furniture includes a bed, desk, chair, and dresser for each student
- Rooms have keyless combination locks and halls are accessed with proximity cards.
- Resident Assistants (RAs) on each floor and a full-time Residence Hall Director in each hall
- Laundry facilities in each hall with a $35 fee for unlimited washer & dryer use—no coins needed!
- Activities include games, crafts, community service, and health & safety information sessions
- Main lounge on the 1st floor with a television, piano, vending machines, and a pool table.
- Kitchenettes in each hall have a microwave, conventional oven, stove, and a full-size refrigerator.

Off-Campus Housing

Many students who move off-campus live within walking distance of the college, but they must live on-campus for their first two years (four semesters).

On-campus housing is guaranteed for all four years. The college does not own any off-campus housing, but listings are available in the Housing & Residence Life Office.
Algonquin Dining Hall

Algonquin Dining Hall is the next building on your right. It is one of two main dining halls. Algonquin has become the “green hub” on campus, offering organic and locally grown produce as well as biodegradable take-out packaging.

Hours are 11 a.m.–8 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m.–9 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Little Al’s Takeout offers the Algonquin Hall menu for diners on the run. Hours are 11 a.m.–8 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m.–9 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Clinton Dining Hall

Cross Rugar Street at the crosswalk. Clinton Dining Hall is down the long sidewalk between Mason Hall and Hood Hall. Enter through the main doors and go downstairs—just let the attendant know you are on a self-guided campus tour.

Clinton Dining Hall features several display-cooking areas: Asian Wok station, Planet Healthy, and the Pizza & Pasta Station.

Clinton offers continuous service Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m.–9:00 p.m. with hot breakfast express, full brunch and dinner on Saturdays and Sundays. Meal card, cash or debit accounts allow entrance and unlimited portions of food. Each platform will have a different option every day—there is a great deal of variety in this dining facility!

Sibley Hall

Exit Clinton and return to Rugar Street. Turn left and follow Rugar Street to Sibley Hall. Sibley Hall is on your left. Enter through the main doors.

Samuel D’s
Samuel D’s is the hands-on laboratory for the Hotel, Restaurant, and Tourism Management program. The restaurant serves lunch on Tuesdays and dinner on Thursdays. The coffee shop is open weekdays from 8:00–11:00 a.m. (Reservations are required for lunch and dinner, please call (518) 564-4260).
Saranac Hall

As you walk down the sidewalk, you will pass Mason and Kent Residence Halls. After Macomb Residence Hall, the next building on your right will be Saranac Hall.

College Store

Enter the College Store on the main (street) level. The store offers texts and materials for courses and SUNY Plattsburgh t-shirts, sweatshirts, gifts, and more. Hours are weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Saturdays from noon to 4:00 p.m.

Student Health Center

Exit the store and turn left. Go down the stairs and past the Telecommunications office. The Student Health Center is directly in front of you.

The Center provides women’s health services, psychological services, a walk-in clinic, allergy injections, and nutritional advice to students on weekdays. Students needing urgent care on nights and weekends can go to Plattsburgh’s Champlain Valley Physician’s Hospital just one block from campus.

University Police

To the left of the Student Health Center is the University Police Department. The main entrance is on the far left side of the building.

University Police patrols the campus 24 hours a day. It provides instructional programming for students on self-defense, escort service to and from campus buildings, and enforce student codes of conduct.

Memorial Hall

Follow the parking lot outside the University Police Department back to Rugar Street. Memorial Hall is the next building on your right. Enter through the main doors facing the street.

Athletics in Memorial Hall

Burke Gallery
Go upstairs to the Burke Gallery. If open, go right into the gallery. This gallery hosts about 7 exhibits per year and has several special collections.

Regina Slatkin Study Room
The study room houses a glass collection and allows students to study other pieces in the collection close up, including antiquities, tribal arts, and Asian works, as well as early modernist works by Rodin, Bonnard, and Cézanne.

Plattsburgh State Art Museum
Our art museum’s collection includes over 5,000 works of art from antiquities to modern pieces. The collection is displayed not only in the museum’s galleries but all over campus through the Museum Without Walls program.

Nina Winkel Sculpture Court
Enter the Nina Winkel Sculpture Court either through the back doors of the Burke Gallery or by passing the Slatkin Room and following the hallway to your left. Nina Winkel used terracotta, stone, bronze, and copper to create works in themes ranging from mythology, the Bible, WWII, and her life experiences.

• The New York Times names it as among the best galleries in upstate New York.
• The sculpture court displays 45 years of artistry by the late Nina Winkel.
• The last piece of art she ever finished hangs on the far wall.
• It is the largest space in the country dedicated solely to the art of one woman.

Exit through the back doors of Nina Winkel by the Art Office, go out onto the walkway, and enter Kehoe on your right.

We hope that you have enjoyed this tour and discovered many unique and interesting things at SUNY Plattsburgh. We welcome you to stop by Admissions Office before you leave.
