ANNUNCING
the 22nd annual
Québec Winter Symposium

Cultural Expressions of Nationalism in Québec
Expressions culturelles du nationalisme au Québec

Dates & Location: March 26-28, 2010 in Montréal, Québec

Open Invitation for: Academics interested in Québec Studies from across the United States

Language: The QWS is conducted en français.

Background: Since 1988, the QWS is renowned for providing a unique professional development opportunity. Professors and researchers interested in Québec Studies are invited to join us for an intimate weekend gathering in cosmopolitan Montréal. This program attracts the participation of those seeking to expand their understanding of Québec cultural-based topics. Each year, the Symposium addresses a different topic. Past symposia have examined a broad range of social, cultural, literary and musical subjects.

2010 Theme: Cultural Expressions of Nationalism in Québec
Expressions culturelles du nationalisme au Québec

Program: Our annual meeting in Montreal is an intimate gathering which includes:

- meetings with leading academic specialists;
- briefings by significant literary and cultural contributors, and
- cultural activities relevant to our program theme.

Registration: USD $399 which includes: all program meetings, two nights single hotel accommodations, daily breakfast, one lunch, one dinner and cultural activities. A reduced rate of USD $249 is available to those not requiring accommodations. Space is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Registration deadline: March 1, 2010.

Testimonials:

"Pleasant and enriching activity!"; "Very interesting and instructive - excellent choice of speakers."

"Enjoyed meeting new colleagues and broadening my understanding of Québec culture."

"An excellent opportunity to expand my knowledge of Montréal, its writers and residents."
