Required Minimum Introductory Level Learning Outcomes:

LIB Students will be able to:

1. Information Literacy
   a. Identify different types of information (Primary/Secondary; Analytical/Factual, etc…)
   b. Identify different types and formats of information sources
   c. Formulate topics and research statements/questions
   d. Understand the organization structures and systems of information both in print and online
   e. Construct and implement search strategies
   f. Use efficient search techniques
   g. Articulate and apply evaluative criteria
   h. Interpret and construct citations

2. Information and Technology Issues
   a. Understand and respect intellectual property rights
   b. Communicate about at least one social/ethical information technology issue

3. Technology Literacy
   a. Communicate and synthesize information using word processing, spreadsheet and presentation software
   b. Understand issues in current and emerging technologies and their role in communicating and analyzing information