ATTENTION INSTRUCTORS

Instructors are expected to attend each course-related instruction session. Your presence motivates the students to become more engaged in the learning experience being provided. Should questions arise about an assignment, your presence at these sessions provides an invaluable opportunity for students to receive clarification and direction in conducting their research.

In a one-hour session a librarian can offer instruction on only some of the items listed below. Select those items most useful for your class. If the librarian teaching your class cannot cover all the areas requested, you will be contacted for more information or to schedule an additional class.

General Information Literacy:

  Selecting and refining a research topic
  Evaluating Information Resources (Print and Electronic)
  Avoiding plagiarism and proper citation of information resources

Books: Feinberg Library Catalog	Other Electronic Catalogs

Reference Sources: Reference Room	Electronic Reference Sources

Periodical Articles:

Using Full-Text Databases	Finding Newspapers
Using Subject-Specific Databases	Reviews & Critiques

Web Resources: Search Engines	Subject Specific Sites

REQUIRED: Please include a course syllabus and describe how the instruction session relates to the assignment:
