Student Rights & Responsibilities

The Student Health division of the Center for Student Health and Psychological Services is concerned with your health and wellness. As one of our patients, you have choices, rights and responsibilities...

RIGHTS:

- You have the right to be treated with respect, consideration, and dignity.
- You have the right to be provided with appropriate privacy.
- You have the right to file a formal grievance with Center administration.
- Your disclosures and records will be treated confidentially, and except when required by law, you will be given the opportunity to approve or refuse their release.
- You will be provided, to the degree known, complete information concerning your diagnosis, evaluation, treatment, and prognosis. When it is medically inadvisable to give such information to you, the information is provided to a person you designate or to a legally authorized person.
- You will be given the opportunity to participate in decisions involving your health care, except when such participation is contraindicated for medical reasons.
- Information is available to you and to our staff concerning:
  1. Your rights, including those specified above
  2. Your conduct and responsibilities
  3. The services we offer
  4. Provisions for after-hours and emergency care
  5. Fees for services and payment policies
  6. Methods for expressing grievances and suggestions to us.

- You will be informed of your right to change your primary care provider here, if another qualified provider is available.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- You have the responsibility to promptly seek medical attention.
- You have the responsibility to be honest about your medical history.
- You have the responsibility to question anything you may not understand.
- You have the responsibility to follow health advice and instructions.
- You have the responsibility to report changes in symptoms or failure to improve within a reasonable time.
- You have the responsibility to respect our clinical staff and policies.
- You have the responsibility to cancel any appointments in advance.
- You have the responsibility to know where to seek after-hours emergency care.
